

Social Value Academic Symposium 2019

【Call for Papers】

The inaugural Social Value Academic Symposium 2019 aims to bring together researchers, practitioners, and academic professionals to share their social value related research with peers and the public. It is co-organized by the Center for Media and Social Impact & Yunus Social Business Centre at National Central University, Dharma Drum Institute of Liberal Arts, Social Impact Institute of Taiwan, and Social Value International. In 2019, this symposium is jointly held with the Social Value International Conference. Our goal is to create a platform where participants from academia, government, the third sector, and the private sector can discuss recent research developments and engage in networking for further collaborations on related research and projects.

Topics of Interest

The symposium calls for unpublished research findings in the following areas:

- Public Policy and Social Value
- Impact Investment and Management
